

Brisbane Whale Watching unveils new look website.....

Brisbane, Queensland AUSTRALIA - Monday 15th June, 2008
- FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE -

Within an hour from going live with the new-look website Brisbane Whale Watching had already confirmed its first on-line booking.

The new website www.brisbanewhalewatching.com.au offers a fresh new look and a user friendly format for Guests to plan, book and even purchase merchandise with just a few clicks.

Voted Brisbane's No.1 Day tour, Brisbane Whale Watching is owned and operated by Captain Kerry Lopez, the only female skipper of a whale watching venture in the South Pacific.

"Following on from a successful season 2007, I saw the need for us to re-launch the website to ensure it reflected the style and quality of the Brisbane Whale Watching experience", says Kerry.

The new site still enables Guests to book on-line via credit card payment and receives instant confirmation, whilst offering some new enhancements such as audio testimonials, quick link features, as well as an on-line shop where Guests can now purchase photography and Gift Vouchers via credit card.

A new dedicated Media Site now offers all the latest press release, media background documents, as well as a selection of our best high resolution imagery for media partners to down-load.

Brisbane Whale Watching Season 2008 commences Saturday 28th June 2008 and operates daily cruises from the shores of Redcliffe Jetty through until late November. MV Eye-Spy offers the ultimate luxury whale watching adventure, entertaining her guests in style with morning and afternoon teas, gourmet buffet luncheon and expert commentary all under the guidance of Captain Kerry Lopez and her fully trained crew.

Key Media Contact:

Rachel Meyer

rachel.meyer@brisbanewhalewatching.com.au

t: +61 (0)419 832 655